Pub grub

THE WHITE HORSE

This classic Parsons Green pub has reopened after a refurbishment, resuming its offering of traditional British comfort food in a homely yet stylish setting. There's plenty of choice on the impressive Sunday lunch menu like rosemary and garlic rubbed leg of lamb, pan-fried sea bass with beetroot gnocchi and 21-day aged rib of beef with all the trimmings.

Seafood supper

ST CLAIR

A cevicheria, fish boutique and wine and sake cellar has opened in Clapham Old Town, serving Nikkei cuisine (made with Peruvian ingredients and Japanese techniques). Other than ceviche dishes, the menu includes à la carte options like roasted duck leg in a yuzu glaze - plus guests can purchase their own fish to take home and cook.

FOOD & DRINK • NOTES

LET'S BRUNCH

Our favourite new morning menus

MADERA

New hotspot hotel Treehouse London's restaurant Madera has launched a Cali-Mexican inspired brunch featuring breakfast enchiladas, margaritas and a vegan churros trolley. Plus, on 7 March and 4 April the rooftop will host 'brunch parties' with live music and dance.

14-15 Langham Place, W1B 2QS;

SWEET CHICK

Sweet Chick is known for its gourmet fried chicken and waffles, but the all-American eatery has just launched a bottomless brunch. On the menu are cornbread biscuits, eggs benedict, ricotta pancakes, southern-style veggie BBQ hash and fried chicken, all served family-style.

WINE & DINE

FIUME UNCORKED

Fiume Uncorked, a wine and dinner series at Francesco Mazzei's Battersea restaurant, has begun. On 25 March, Vagabond's Ben Gubbins will be taking over the bar, pairing each Mediterranean course with an independent Italian wine.

FRANK ET FRANÇOIS

MAISON FRANÇOIS

French-style restaurant Maison François will open this spring, with a focus on simplicity and seasonality, and a menu of brasserie classics as well as wood-fired meats and fish. Plus, downstairs there's Frank's, Maison François' 'rebellious' sibling wine bar with its own dedicated chef.
